Stephen Epstein Insurance

Dear Stephen,

Over the years, I have been surprised how much I rely on your advice and support in the insurance field. I have found you to be relentless in accomplishing anything we set out to do. Therefore, it was not surprising that when my wife Mindy encountered a problem with the underwriters on her life insurance policy, you took on the "battle" with the insurance company. You were tireless and of course, you accomplished the goal!

I would not hesitate to recommend you to anyone looking for a committed, ethical insurance broker.

All the best,

Ken Kadonoff
